

No. 6 - March 2015

Table of Contents
1.	High-tech enters our bathrooms  Cotton remains popular among customers.  Towels made of microfibres dry faster.  Nanotechnology can be used to promote health.	page 1
2.	Sales of bath textiles are rising Global retail sales for bath textiles are forecasted to increase. Swedish and Canadian households spend most on bath textiles. China is the largest retail market for bath textiles and will expand further.	page 2
3.	Positive trade outlook for synthetic fibres  World trade value of man-made filaments increased slightly in 2013.  Global exports of synthetic fibres will benefit from global recovery.  China is by far the largest exporter of synthetic fibres.	page 6
4.	World economy picks up OECD is more optimistic on global growth prospects. Lower oil prices will boost global demand. Downside risks to growth outlook remain high.	page 8
5.	Monthly chart update	page 12	