

ITMF Annual Conference 2019
Porto, Portugal - October 20-22
Social Programme

Welcome Evening – October 20

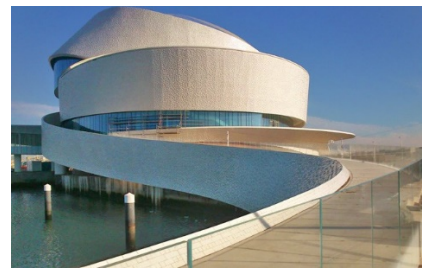

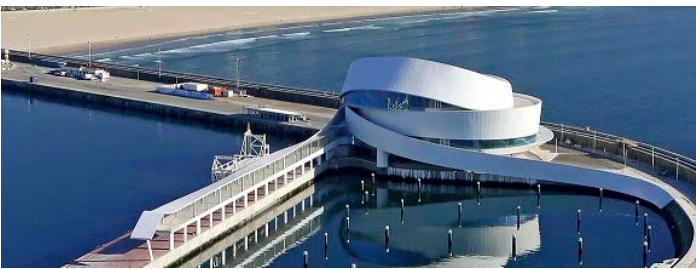

Venue: Palácio da Igreja Velha, Located in Vermoim, Vila Nova de Famalicão
Dress Code: smart/business casual

The Old Church Palace is a splendid monument of rare beauty built in 1881 in the baroque style with two castellated towers and an annexed chapel, the Chapel S. Francisco de Assis in a neo-Gothic style, surrounded by beautiful gardens and a vast green area. A perfect harmony of an architectural adaptation, the perfect combination of classic and modern which did not lose the traces of the ancient building and its spirit. It is an unforgettable encounter with history and nature.

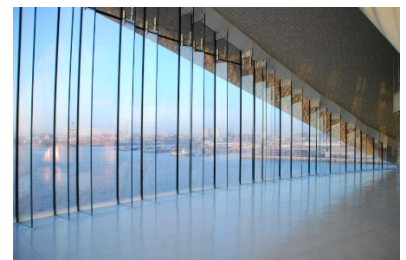

Gala Dinner – October 21

Venue: Terminal de Cruzeiros do Porto, located in Matosinhos
Dress Code: Cocktail (Black tie optional) / National Dress

An icon of great architectural value, designed by the Portuguese Architect Luis Pedro Silva
Building of the year 2017 - Award of ArchDaily

The Porto Cruise Terminal is the largest project ever for the opening of the Port of Leixões to the city and an important gateway of the region. It is situated at the South Mole of the Port of Leixões, just 3 Km from the city of Porto. Since April 2011, the new pier with 340 metres of length has received the biggest and the most glamorous cruise ships from the worldwide cruise fleet, boosting the cruise tourism in the North of Portugal region.

Excursion to Guimarães – October 22

Mill Visit Lameirinho (Producer of Home Textiles)

LAMEIRINHO is a Portuguese family owned company with 70 years of history, knowledge and experience in the home textile business. It dedicates much of its work producing for well-known brands all over the world, but also has a strong presence in the Contract business. Owner of brands and licenses, the company distributes to the retail channel in the Iberian market and through digital platforms "market place" in the international market.

Reception at Town Hall of Guimarães

Schedule

14.45 – 19.00 Excursion to Guimarães

15.45 – 17.00: Visit of Lameirinho

17.00 – 18.00: Reception at Town Hall of Guimaraes