Davos, Switzerland

Golf Tournament

Saturday, September 17

Golf Club Davos - 08.00 - 13.30 hrs

Meeting at Golf Club Davos, Mattastrasse 25, 7260 Davos

A world-renowned mountain air and the uniqueness of the surrounding area make the game of golf in Davos an unmistakable experience. Nestled in a majestic mountain world on the plateau of the Landwasser Valley, 1560 meters above sea level, the 18-hole golf course is located on the periphery of the highest city in Europe.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the spiritual father of Sherlock Holmes, hit the first golf balls on the so-called "grounds" in 1893. Since then, golf in Davos has experienced a significant upswing. In 2004 the Golf Club Davos turned 75. In 2010, the course was generously expanded and renewed by the signature of the well-known golf course designer Kurt Rossknecht. The flat course is 5469 meters long and is played with 68 strokes in par.
