Table of Contents

1. Textile industry benefits from global economic recovery
   - Global economy has a weak start into 2015.
   - US-GDP falls in Q1 2015 due to one-off factors.
   - US-economy is back in recovery mode.
   - Euro area continues its gradual recovery despite Greek debt crisis.
   - Emerging market economies lose steam.
   - Positive outlook for global economy and for global textile industry.

2. New conductive ink for electronic apparel
   - Current printed electronics tend to be rigid.
   - New ink has high stretchability.
   - Whole circuits can be printed on T-shirts in single printing step.

3. Swimwear sales are trending upwards
   - Regional differences in swimwear sales.
   - Sales in Asia are forecasted to grow strongest.
   - Women tend to spend more on swimwear than men.
   - Sales of men’s swimwear grows faster than women’s.
   - Popularity of water sports supports swimwear sales.

4. Trade patterns for home textiles in the USA
   - US-home textiles benefit from economic recovery.
   - Private consumption is increasing.
   - Home textiles supported by housing market.
   - US imports most of home textile products from Asia.
   - Trade balance with Canada is positive and improving further.

5. Monthly chart update